

Parking facilities around the Cambridge Buddhist Centre

- You can park on the forecourt in front of the CBC, it is free but the spaces are limited. If you do park there, please allow yourself to be double parked two cars deep. Please take a parking slip from the dispenser by the front doors, fill in your name and which class you are attending and display on your dashboard.
- Between the CBC and the roundabout there is a pay and display car park between 9 am-5 pm, seven days per week
- Opposite the CBC on Newmarket Road towards the roundabout there are a few "Medical" spaces that are available after 6.30 pm
- Christchurch street : when you come from the roundabout it is the second street on the left after the CBC, on the left hand side of the street, spaces available after 5 pm
- Along Newmarket Rd away from the roundabout, Napier St and Auckland Rd there are residents spaces available only after 8pm daily (and before 9am)
- Grafton Centre car parks: one entrance off East road, another entrance off Newmarket Rd
- Accessible via the river end of Abbey Road (turn left and left again under the Elizabeth Way bridge) is Walnut Tree Avenue with Pay and Display parking, free after 5pm.