

Covid 19 update

There is no longer a legal requirement to wear a face covering indoors. We are following Government advice to wear a mask in crowded and indoor spaces where you come into contact with people you do not normally meet

To minimise risks we are also :

- keeping spaces well ventilated and clean
- providing hand sanitiser for use
- making some events bookable and/or limiting numbers

Thank you for your support